OUR OPINION

The Carlton has always been one of Funchal's most well-known, popular hotels in its category of the modern era. It is superbly located, right between Funchal's holiday district and its old downtown area. The marina is also within easy reach, just a short walk away. The high quality and services aren't the only thing that make this hotel special, it also has direct access to the sea and amazing views offered from their sea-view rooms as well as on their restaurants and terraces.
