OUR OPINION

The hotel building is perhaps a bit daunting from the outside, however the interior is stylish and trendy throughout, with high quality, excellent rooms, all of good size with views across the city. The location, being built just atop of town, allows guest to be able to indulge in everything Porto has to offer, with easy reach to all main sites and attractions on foot. Just perfect for a quick visit to discover this very typically Portuguese, and at the same time very typically European city.
